

ANTHROPOEAST: THE EUROPEANIZATION OF THE BALKANS – THE BALKANIZATION OF EUROPE

Third International Conference in Ethnology and Anthropology

University of Craiova (Craiova)

Dates: November 26-29, 2008.

Location: Craiova, Romania.

Deadline: September 15, 2008.

Organizers: The Museum of Oltenia, the Department of Ethnography of the University of Craiova, and the Centre for Studies in Folklife and Traditional Culture of Dolj County.

In order to improve communication we are going to edit and publish the volume of the conference, Symposia. Studies in Ethnology and Anthropology, Issue no. 1/2008 in advance, so that each participant will have it in their conference portfolio.

The papers which to be presented during the conference must therefore be submitted in extenso to our editorial board by September 15, 2008.

The papers should be original and should not be under consideration elsewhere. They must be presented in English and presentations are not to exceed 20 minutes in length.

Submissions should be sent to the publisher at the following address:

Mihai Fifor, general manager
Lavinia Coaje, project coordinator
The Museum of Oltenia

E-mail: muzeulolteniei@yahoo.com

Articles should not exceed 15 pages.

On a different sheet of paper you are to write the author's name and academic affiliation and paper's title

All contributions should be clearly typed or printed on single-sided A4 or US Letter paper, one and a half spaced, and with wide margins throughout (including footnotes and bibliographical references).

Footnotes should be kept at a minimum. Essential notes should be presented in a typed list at the end of the article. Bibliographical references should be given in parentheses in a standard author-date in-text citations:

Example: (Thomas 1991: 123).

A complete list of references cited, arranged alphabetically by author's

The aim of the conference is to create a debate framework for academics both from Romania and from abroad, who are concerned with the (re)defining of the epistemological limits of the field of research which they cover.

Several themes should be taken into consideration:

I. (Multi)Cultural Europe. Rhetorics and Practice of Diversity

- Migrations and the Construction of Ethnic Groups in the New Europe
- Rituals, Narratives, Discourses and Material Culture
- Negotiating Identity in the New Europe
- Interpreting Religious Diversity: Conversion, Syncretism and Religious Practice

II. A New Europe – A New Anthropology ?!

- »My Home, Your Country, Our Museum«. Migration Flow and Museums
- Poetics and Politics in the New Anthropology

Without having any intention to cover the entire problems of the anthropological research in the South-Eastern Europe, the conference is intended to be only a simple X-raying of the discipline as it looks like at the beginning of the Century.

surname, should be typed at the end of the article. Examples:
Thomas, K. 1991. Religion and the Decline of Magic. London: Penguin Books.

Declich, F. 2000. 'Sufi experience in rural Somali. A focus on women', Social Anthropology 8, 3 : 295-318.

Single inverted commas should be used except for quotations within quotations, which should have double inverted commas. Quotations of more than 60 words should be set off from the text with an extra line of spacing above and below, and typed without inverted commas.

British English (not American English) spelling should be used in English articles except in quoted matter which should follow the original.

Participation expenses. All expenses, excepting travel costs from participants' home country to Bucharest and from Bucharest back home, will be covered by the organisers.
