Fellowships) or by mail to: Institut für die Wissenschaften vom Menschen, Fellowship Coordinator, Spittelauer Lände 3, 1090 Wien, Austria.

Conditions

Robert Bosch fellows are invited to spend six months at IWM in Vienna to pursue their research project while working in residence at the institute. The fellows will receive a stipend in the amount of 10.000 Euro to cover all expenses related to the stay in Vienna (travel, apartment, health insurance, incidentals). Robert Bosch Fellows will be members of the international and multidisciplinary scholarly community at IWM. They are invited to present and discuss their project in lectures or seminars. IWM will provide the fellows with a personal office with PC, access to internet and e-mail, in-house research and administrative facilities.

Eligibility

Applications are accepted from Ph.D candidates and post-doctoral researchers who

- either are of South-Eastern European origin,
- or are affiliated to a university or research institution in the region,
- or, independent of their origin, pursue research on South-Eastern Europe.

The program is directed to graduates with a degree in the humanities and social sciences, that will work in Vienna on a research project of her/his choice that is related to one of the IWM's main research fields. Although there is no strict age limit, preference will be given to applicants up to the age of 35.
