

milena.talks in the math.space

Women in science and research

Prospects on promotion and networking in the enlarged European Union

Thursday, May 6, 2004

Venue: math.space in the Museumsquartier Wien

Museumspplatz 1, (Ovaltrakt e-5.4)

1070 Vienna

On the occasion of the EU enlargement in May 2004 the City Councillor for Women's Affairs, Renate Brauner, invites to milena.talks, a one-day symposium with high-ranking experts and women-scientists from Austria, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Slovakia, and Slovenia, as Renée Schroeder, Wittgenstein award-winner, and the Slovak mathematician and EU-expert Daniela Velichová: opening statements, panel discussion, presentation of projects, exchange of know-how and experience concerning the promotion of women in science and research in the enlarged European Union.

Milena.talks is a co-operation of the Milena-Network (Women's Office of the City of Vienna) and math.space.

Details on the programme: www.milena.at or <http://math.space.or.at>

Participation is free of charge.

Please submit the registration form until May 4, via E-Mail or Fax.

Working languages: German and English.

Co-ordination: Europaforum Wien, Rahlgasse 3/2, 1060 Vienna

T + 43 1 585 85 10, F + 43 1 585 85 10-30, E milena@europaforum.or.at, www.milena.at

Programme

11.00 Opening statements

Perspectives in the new Europe: the City of Vienna as a key agent for equal opportunities in economy and research

Rudolf Taschner, Head, math.space

Renate Brauner, City Councillor for Women's Affairs

Renée Schroeder, biochemist, researcher of the year 2003

Daniela Velichová, member of the ENWISE expert group (EU)

Claus Hofer, Director ZIT (Zentrum für Innovation und Technologie GmbH)

Daniela Urschitz, Head, Department for Women's Affairs

Following possibility for media requests

11.30–13.00 Panel discussion: Women in science and research – chances and challenges in the enlarged European Union

Renée Schroeder, biochemist, researcher of the year 2003, chairwoman of FemPower Vienna 2004

Martina Hartl, EU-expert, department of social sciences, Federal Ministry of Education, Science and Culture

Eszter Papp, EU-Programme co-ordinator, Hungarian Science and Technology Foundation Budapest, co-author of the National Report „Women in Science Hungary“

Daniela Velichová, Vice-Director, Institute for Mathematics, Slovak University of Technology in Bratislava, member of the ENWISE expert group (EU), co-author of the ENWISE Report “Wasted talents: Women Scientists in post-communist Countries“

Roswitha Hoffmann, Department of „Gender and Diversity in Organizations“, Vienna University of Economics and Business Administration

Moderation: Birgit Dalheimer, ORF Radio, Ö1 Science Department

13.00-14.00 Lunch

14.00-17.00 Presentation of projects and general discussion: promotion of women and (feminist) networking activities in Science and research and dialogues with researchers: Examples from Austria, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Slovakia and Slovenia e.g. Zenyaveda –Czech Women Scientists, The Central European Centre for Women and Youth in Science, Prague, Slovak National Steering Committee Women in Science, FemPower 2004, Fem Tech, fForte, FluMiNuT, Austrian Research Centers Seibersdorf, Gender Kolleg Universität Wien, Hungarian Science and Technology Foundation etc.

Moderation: Elke Ziegler, journalist

[ milena ]

The Women's Office of the City of Vienna

Anmeldung/ Registration Coupon

milena.talks im math.space 6. Mai 2004/ May 6, 2004 Beginn/Start: 11.15 Uhr/hrs

Ich nehme an den milena.talks teil. / I will participate in the milena.talks.

---

Familienname(n) / Surname(s)

Vorname(n) / First name(s)

---

Organisation / Institution

---

Straße / Street

---

Postleitzahl / Postal Code

Ort / City

Staat / Country

---

Telefon / Phone

Fax

E-Mail

Participation in the milena.talks at the Museumsquartier is free of charge.

---

Datum / Date

Unterschrift / Signature

Please submit the registration form until 4 May via E-Mail or Fax/ Anmelde-Coupon bitte bis 4. Mai via E-Mail oder per Fax retournieren. T + 43 1 585 85 10, F + 43 1 585 85 10-30, E milena@europaforum.or.at, www.milena.at