For the style guide of the CCS-Purdue series and further details cf. the following homepages: <http://clcwebjournal.lib.purdue.edu/ccs-purdue.html>; <http://www.thepress.purdue.edu/series/compstudies.as>; <http://clcwebjournal.lib.purdue.edu/totosycv.html>; <http://www.sunysb.edu/complit/vasvari.htm>.

Deadline of receipt of papers is December 31, 2003.

Papers are invited for a collected volume on the work of Nobel in Literature 2002 Imre Kertesz, to be published 2004 in the Purdue Univ Pr. series of Books in Comparative Cultural Studies, edited by Louise O. Vasvari (State Univ. of New York Stony Brook and Budapest, Hungary and Steven Totosy [Tötösy] de Zepetnek (Boston and Univ. of Halle-Wittenberg, Germany)).

About Nobel 2002 Imre Kertesz, Hungarian and Jew is to contain papers about the work of Imre Kertesz, Nobel Laureate in Literature 2002.

In particular papers in comparative cultural studies are of interest, including in contexts such as holocaust literature and Central European culture and literature, although the editors welcome also textual analyses of Kertesz's oeuvre.

Papers should be no longer than 6 000 words, in the MLA (Modern Language Association of America) style with parenthetical sources and works cited but without footnotes or end notes.
