

SARAJEVO INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL ON BALKAN STUDIES

Sarajevo Law Students' Association (Sarajevo)

Time: August 14-21, 2006.

Deadline for Applications:
June 25, 2006.

Working language: English.

To be considered for admission, one must submit in English:

1. the application form

(download on www.usp.ba)

2. resume or curriculum vitae: Typed, one-page document outlining work, academic, and leadership experience.

3. a typed statement-ofpurpose not to exceed 300 words:
stating your reasons for applying to the Sarajevo International Summer School.

All application materials are to be submitted at: siss@usp.ba

Participation fee for international students: EUR 30.

For more information please visit:
<http://www.usp.ba>

The first edition of the Sarajevo International Summer School, organized by the Sarajevo Law Students' Association, will take place in Bosnia and Herzegovina, between the 14th of August 2006 and the 21st of August, 2006, in the city of Sarajevo.

All undergraduate and postgraduate students (aged 18 – 26) studying law, economics and other social sciences are welcome. The Sarajevo International Summer School seeks university students who have demonstrated leadership potential and a commitment to political and economic liberty, regional cooperation and cultural exchange.

To be eligible to attend the Summer School, students must be a citizen of one of the following countries: Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, the Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Serbia and Montenegro, Albania, Bulgaria, Romania, Turkey or the EU countries.

Main topics of the Summer School on Balkan Studies include:

- History of Balkan: different nations and different conflicts
- The human rights situation in the Balkans
- The US and EU foreign policy toward the Balkans
- The importance of EU integration.

Lectures are conducted by several university professors from the Sarajevo University, experts representing American Embassy in B-H, OHR, Humanitarian Law Centre from Belgrade and NGO representatives.

Students admitted to the program are expected to participate fully, which means attending all classes and lectures as well as participation into cultural and other activities. Admissions decisions are based upon extracurricular achievements, leadership qualities and English language ability. Students from Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia, Albania, Macedonia, Serbia and Montenegro, Bulgaria, Romania and Turkey do not pay the participation fee. Participation fee includes: accommodation, three meals per day, local transport, reading materials, tours (Sarajevo and Mostar), visiting the Sarajevo Film Festival, as well as different social events and parties.